MESILLA COLLEGE COACH ARRIVES

Promising Material for Football Team This Season. To Play El Paso.

Las Cruces, N. M., Aug. 22.—Professor J. O. Miller, registrar at the Agricultural college and former coach of athletics, while in Chicago last week saw A. W. Badenoch, the new college coach. Mr. Badenoch stated that he would be here this week, to take active hold of the college athletic department and would start with the opening of college to get his football squad into condition. There will be several of last year's players back this fall and there is already considerable promising new material in view, so that the college supporters expect that this year's team will be able to give an extra good account of itself. There will be, according to the proposed schedule, at least two games played in El Paso, and it is also almost settled that the Texas A. & M. boys will be met on the gridiron. Coach Badenoch states that the changes in the football rules for this year will tend to make a cleaner and more interesting game.

CRUCES JURY FINDS VERDICT IN CASE

Coroner's Jury Finds That Tom Hall Shot Juan Benavides at Nutt.

Las Cruces, N. M., Aug. 22.—The report of the coroner's jury, called to investigate the shooting of Juan Benavides near Nutt Station, has been filed in the office of the probate clerk of Dona Ana county. The report contains the testimony of one witness who states that he was present when the shooting occurred. He states, however, that when the first three shots were fired he did not see the parties, having his eyes turned in the opposite direction, but when the fourth shot came he saw that it came from the pistol of Tom Hall, the man who surrendered himself. The witness testified that he did not know who fired the first shot. The finding of the jury is to the effect that Juan Benavides came to his death by a bullet from a .45 caliber revolver in the hands of Tom Hall. The men composing the jury were: Lorenzo P. Torres, foreman; Antonio S. Abeyta, E. R. Armijo, Silverio Samaniego, Juan Ramirez, Francisco Bustamante and Julian Saliz.

NEW SANATORIUM FOR LAS CRUCES

One Proposed to Be Erected on San Augustine Ranch. It Is Said.

Las Cruces, N. M., Aug. 22.—Las Cruces and the Mesilla valley seem destined to become the health resort of the world. With two large sanitariums now under construction there still seems to be no let-up to its popularity, and the latest is that eastern capitalists are proposing to construct a large sanitarium and all-year-round pleasure resort on W. W. Cox's San Augustine ranch, just east of here on the other side of the Organ mountains. El Paso people are also said to be interested in this project.

ROCK ISLAND SEEKING LAS CRUCES DELEGATION

Las Cruces, N. M., Aug. 22.—Richard Warren, of the Rock Island lines at El Paso, was in the city yesterday interviewing members of the chamber of Commerce and of the Mesilla valley produce exchange in an effort to get the Mesilla valley delegation to go to the 18th national irrigation congress at Pueblo over his lines. He offers a special train of Pullmans, carrying an observation and buffet car, sleepers, and a dining car to stay with the train for the entire trip, the delegation to be allowed to use the sleepers and the diner at the congress.

TWO POLITICAL MEETINGS IN DONA ANA COUNTY

People's Party Holds Meeting at Mesilla Park and at Dona Ana, Las Cruces Men Making Speeches.

Las Cruces, N. M., Aug. 22.—Two political meetings were held yesterday, one at Dona Ana and the other at Mesilla Park, in the interests of the People's party. The Dona Ana meeting was held in the afternoon, a large crowd being present. Speeches were made by N. C. Frenger, M. G. Llewellyn and other prominent men.

The meeting at Mesilla Park last evening was probably the largest political meeting that the town ever had. J. H. Paxton, J. E. Bonham, Eugene Van Patten and C. D. Case made the principal addresses, explaining the policy of the new party, especially with reference to the initiative, the referendum and the recall. The speakers were applauded frequently.

VISITORS AT VAN PATTEN'S DRIPPING SPRINGS RESORT

Las Cruces, N. M., Aug. 22.—The temperature at Van Patten's Dripping Springs resort yesterday at 9 o'clock in the morning was 72 degrees, the highest point reached during the day being 88 degrees at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The following guests are registered: T. E. Davis and wife, Mesilla Park; Mrs. Fannie D. Miller, Missouri; R. L. Stewart, Mesilla Park; Harry Houston and wife, Dallas; Miss Davis, Plano, Tex.; Miss Vera Davis, Plano; H. W. French and wife, Muskogee, Mich.; J. T. Stockton, Mobile, Ala.; Agnes Sullivan, Niagara Falls; Miss Hannah Burke, Las Cruces; A. E. Barron, New York; H. G. Fitzgerald, Las Cruces; W. J. Stevens and wife, Las Cruces; Mrs. J. E. Thacher, Las Cruces; R. A. Stevens, Las Cruces.

LAS CRUCES PERSONALS.

Las Cruces, N. M., Aug. 22.—Prof. and Mrs. Bay will arrive this week from the university of California, where the professor has been doing special work in irrigation and its allied branches. He will be with the irrigation department at the New Mexico Agricultural college this year.

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Hendricks, of Rincon, was in the city yesterday on her way to El Paso, where she will visit friends for a few days.

Miss Lucy N. Lewis, librarian at the Agricultural college, has returned from Pomona, Calif., where she spent her summer vacation.

W. B. Ferguson returned to Albuquerque yesterday, after addressing the People's party here on Saturday evening.

John Knorr has returned to the Agricultural college after spending the summer in special work. He is a junior at the institution.

Misses Mildred and Vineta Lindauer, who have been visiting Mrs. C. M. Poole for several days, have gone to Albuquerque to make their future home. Their father was formerly cashier with the Southwestern at El Paso and has taken a similar position with the Santa Fe at Albuquerque.

Miss Edna Potts, manager of the Postal Telegraph office here, has returned from El Paso, where she visited friends and relatives for several days. Doc Mead, who relieved her during her absence, has returned to his home at La Mesa.

W. D. Tipton came in yesterday from Tularosa.

Maj. W. H. H. Llewellyn and two sons returned yesterday from a two days' trip to the Llewellyn ranch near old Fort Selden, where the big sanitarium will be located.

J. B. Bryan and family, of El Paso are in the city for a few days. Mr. Bryan coming up to look after his real estate interests here.

F. J. Amador left yesterday for El Paso and Old Mexico, expecting to be away for a few days on business connected with the Amador estate.

Louis Norwood, of the T. C. ranch on the west side of the river, was a Las Cruces visitor yesterday and today. He reports that the recent rains have helped considerably on his side of the river, but that the water has fallen in spots and has not been general in character. Where they have had rain, however, the grass is growing rapidly and the range is in good condition.

Dr. O. H. Brown was an El Paso visitor yesterday.

E. C. Wade made a business trip to the Pass City yesterday.

Mrs. W. C. Burrows, who has been the guest of Mrs. L. F. Elliott for the past few days, has returned to her home in El Paso. Mrs. Burrows is the cashier for the El Paso branch of the Postal Telegraph company.

Dr. E. D. Sinks, of El Paso, was in Las Cruces yesterday, partly on business and partly on legal business.

R. C. Wilson, Pullman conductor, whose home is in El Paso, was a Las Cruces visitor yesterday.

Judge Jay Good, of El Paso, came to Las Cruces yesterday on legal business.

Felix Nash, of the Tiller-Hall ranch west of Las Cruces, was in the city today.

Maj. W. J. Fewel, of El Paso, was a Las Cruces visitor yesterday. He was busy part of the afternoon telling his famous fish story as to how he tamed a 120 foot whale in California, but he found that the zest was completely taken from his tale by some of the truthful episodes narrated by Nicholas Galles and other fishermen of skill and note in this city.

W. A. Fleming Jones was in Dona Ana last evening, where he addressed the voters on the issues of the day in the interests of the People's party.

Miss Allie Hague, 57 3/4 Paso, is a guest of Mrs. J. H. Paxton.

ANOTHER ARREST FOLLOWS MOGOLLEN STAGE ROBBERY

Albuquerque, N. M., Aug. 22.—Charged with participation in the recent robbery of the Silver City-Mogollon stage, in which the driver was killed and a large quantity of silver bullion was carried away, Phil Estes was arrested by Capt. Fred Fornoff of the New Mexico mounted police and lodged in jail at Socorro Monday. Estes is at present under indictment for stealing horses. Bill Day, arrested Sunday in Globe, Ariz., on a charge of participation in

Calisher Store News

It may seem odd to have "Store News" without having a store—yet such is the case. We received telegraphic advice from New York this morning that our buyers are selecting Fall and Winter stock without regard to our temporary suspension of business. With the coming of Mr. Calisher we will be able to announce the quarters we will occupy until our new store is completed.
